CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT JULIA A. ANDUJAR

Chief Master Sergeant Julia A. Andujar is the Senior Enlisted Leader for the Defense Health Agency's Medical Education and Training Campus (METC) located on Joint Base San Antonio-Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas. Chief Andujar is the primary enlisted adviser to the Commandant of the Department of Defense's largest allied healthcare campus entrusted with training the world's finest enlisted medical professionals. She assists in leading, planning and directing over 1,320 Army, Navy, Air Force, and civilian faculty and staff responsible for directly or indirectly supporting the training requirements within 49 programs of instruction for approximately 16,500 students per year.

Prior to arriving at METC, Chief Andujar served as the Senior Enlisted Leader for the 59th Training Group, also at Joint Base San Antonio-Fort Sam Houston.

CMSgt Andujar enlisted in the Air Force in July of 2001 and graduated from the Public Health Apprentice course at Brooks AFB, Texas. Her background includes a full spectrum of duties in the public health career field, Squadron, Group and Major Command levels. She has served as a Self-Aid and Buddy Care instructor, First Term Airman Center lead, a Master Resilience Trainer and Wing Inspection Team lead. She has deployed in support of Operations NEW DAWN, INHERENT RESOLVE and FREEDOM SENTINEL and has completed overseas tours in Italy, the Azores and Japan.
